Banff

What to see in Banff?

Whyte Museum of the Canadian Rockies: Founded by local artists Catharine and Peter Whyte, the century-old Whyte Museum is more than just a rainy-day option. It boasts a beautiful, ever-changing gallery displaying art from 1800 to present, by both regional, Canadian and international artists, many with a focus on the Rockies.

10CAD / £6,15 per adult. Click here to get more infos and tickets.

Upper Hot Springs Pool: they gush out from 2.5km beneath Sulphur Mountain at a constant temperature of between 32°C (90°F) and 46°C (116°F) – it was the springs that drew the first tourists to Banff. You can still sample the soothing mineral waters at the Upper Hot Springs Pool, near the Banff Gondolar and wagon reconstitutions.

8,30CAD / £5,10 per adult. Click here to get more infos and tickets.

Cave & Basin National Historic Site: visit the Cave and Basin National Historic Site to experience the birthplace of Canada's national parks and learn about the natural and cultural history of the mountains. Discover the hot water that seeps from the rocks, smell the minerals and explore the trails. Enjoy it on your own or take one of the many guided tours.

Day hikes in the Banff Area:

Rushing rivers, snowcapped peaks, alpine meadows, and glacially-carved cirques make the wilderness surrounding the Town of Banff a popular destination with hikers. Hiking in the Banff area range from lowelevation strolls along boardwalks to more strenuous full-day outings that lead seasoned hikers to alpine passes framed by mountains permanently mantled in snow. For maps, detailed route finding and trail descriptions, visit a Parks Canada Visitor Centre or purchase a hiking guide book and topographical map. Cell service is not reliable. Click here to get more infos.

Paddling: go for an adventure on lakes (Lake Minnewanka, Two Jack, Johnson or the Vermilion Lakes) or on river.
